

“Breast Crawl”

All newborns, when placed on their mother's abdomen soon after birth, have the ability to find the mother's breast and begin feeding on their own.

It's in the art of nature, to nurture.

It's the first celebration of motherhood.

Celebration of first attachment.

#WORLD BREASTFEEDING WEEK

Chaitali Bharatia

MSc-SD (Diabetes & Cardiac Nutrition)